

Being gay in NEPA show's topic

WVIA correspondent Suzanne Kapral-Kelly welcomes panelists who will address being gay in northeastern Pennsylvania on the next "State of Pennsylvania," at 7 p.m. Thursday on WVIA-TV.

It is estimated that between 8 percent and 10 percent of the region's population is gay.

Kapral-Kelly will be joined in the Sordoni Theater at WVIA by John Dawe from Dawe Consulting and executive director, NEPA Rainbow Alliance; Jeff Brauer, associate professor and director for the Center for Service Learning at Keystone College and a board member of Equality Pennsylvania, and the Rev. Daniel Gunn of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Wilkes-Barre.

The show also will include comments from international AIDS activist Cleve Jones, who is founder of the AIDS Memorial Quilt.

To be a part of the live studio audience, call 602-
